WA 439/2006
BEFORE
HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE MR. B. S.REDDY
HON'BLR MR JUSTICE HRISHIKESH ROY

The impugned order of transfer challenged in the writ petition which has been upheld by the learned Single Judge , in our considered opinion, does not suffer from any infirmities whatsoever. The learned Single Judge rightly construed the order to be one of simple transfer which in no manner affects any of the service conditions of the petitioner- writ appellant. Learned Single Judge did not commit any error dismissing the writ petition filed by the petitioner-appellant.

We find no merit in this writ appeal and the same shall accordingly stand dismissed.